Application range

For the use of the new automatic locks A700 | Tandeo and E700 | Eneo A in flush wooden doors, new strikers of the AS617 and AS586 series have been added to the range.

In the latch area, the latch slide has been extended upwards so that the release unit does not hit the profile. (see drawing in the appendix)

For the AS617, the combi striker was also included, which now has a latch slide for the automatic latch.
